The image is dominated by several tall, modern skyscrapers with glass facades that are brightly lit from within, creating a warm, golden glow. The buildings are reflected in the dark water of the sea in the foreground. The sky is a deep, dark blue. The overall composition is horizontal, with the buildings stretching across the frame.

A wide-angle photograph of a golf course at dusk or dawn. A golfer in a blue shirt and dark trousers is in the foreground, captured mid-swing on a green. The course is characterized by numerous sand traps and lush green grass. In the background, the ocean stretches to the horizon under a soft, hazy sky. The text 'YAS ISLAND LIVING' is overlaid in white, sans-serif capital letters on the left side of the image.
